NECKLACE OF ESCAPE

Description: These seemingly simple necklaces commonly consist of a thin gold chain suspending a single black stone pendent held in an iron cast clasp.

Effect: Once per scene (Speed: 2) upon your command, this necklace transforms into a small shadowy snake that can move along your body. It can release any binding that restrains you, unless the binding is magical and controlled by someone of a higher Hero Tier than you are. You also gain a bonus to any Action Skill Roll required to escape confinement (including Stealth, Larceny, and even Knowledge skill uses) equal to your Hero's Tier.
